Multi Academy Trust Launch Train to Teach Programme

Ascend Learning Trust are introducing a new partnership with Teach First in September 2024, providing school-centred initial teacher training offering trainees the unique opportunity to train alongside national experts and experienced local teachers.

The 12 months in house training works towards trainees gaining their Qualified Teacher Status alongside a PGCE. The multi academy trust offer placements at their four secondary schools and three primary and early years, working in the classroom and closely with an onsite mentor.

The multi academy trust have officially shared the news via their website with full information on applying:

Ruth Woodhouse, Pedagogy and Development Lead for Ascend Learning Trust went on to say “We are extremely excited to be working as a Teach First Training Partner. By working together, we can develop the future Teachers of Ascend Learning Trust. It is an incredible opportunity for anyone who is passionate about teaching and wanting a hands-on approach. If you want to be a part of this, and work alongside ambitious, compassionate, and dedicated people we welcome your application. Our mission is to develop and retain high quality professionals who relentlessly pursue the Ascend vision. Together we will foster a culture of compassion and inclusivity with high expectations and standards for all. Where horizons are limitless, and education is unmissable.”
